

Reading Coach Institute

January 12-15, 2004

Wingate Inn – Helena

Conducted by Consortium on Reading Excellence in cooperation with the Office of Public Instruction.

Designed for teacher leaders and reading coaches to prepare them to support and facilitate literacy instruction in the classroom and to successfully implement research-based reading programs. Connections to Montana's Reading First requirements and processes will be made throughout the session.

Topics include: essential literacy concepts, coaching skills, data collection and analysis, current research, best practices, and strategies for monitoring effective implementation.
